Product short description:

This graphite and black thin striped Vertigo braided lighting cable is particularly eye-catching, featuring a hypnotic pattern that captures the imagination.

The Vertigo cables collection, with its Italian design, is a tribute to the artwork of the psychological thriller of Alfred Hitchcock's movie of the same name.

This high-quality and hardwearing fabric has a real HD effect, appearing to be hand-painted, with a mixture of coloured and transparent threads that provides a stunning and enthralling final texture, which is both vivid and highly defined. This mesmerising cable will appeal to the truly creative and bold designers out there that want to make a real statement with their lighting options, whilst daring to push the boundaries.

As with all our wiring at Creative-Cables, these cables are durable and flexible.
