Product short description:

Illuminate your favorite details at home with the MAG-Y series metal wall light featuring a swivel joint and spotlight. This versatile lamp combines functionality and style, making it perfect for creating focused lighting in any space. Use it to highlight artwork, emphasize architectural features, or simply enjoy reading your favorite books.

The durable metal structure complements various interior styles, from modern to industrial. The swivel joint tilts up to 90° and rotates up to 315°, providing maximum flexibility. With its textile cable, plug, and metal washer for wall mounting, installation is a breeze even in areas without electrical outlets. And if you need to move the lamp, the magnetic base lets you easily detach and reposition it wherever you like.
